

George Alston Handling Seminar

Sponsored by
Beaver County Kennel Club

Saturday and Sunday, May 2nd & May 3rd, 2009

You will receive confirmation of your registration, along with more specific information and directions to the Seminar.

Payment must accompany registration form in order to reserve your place in the seminar. Please make checks payable to: Beaver County Kennel Club.

Cancellations must be received at least two weeks prior to seminar date for refund.

RULES:

- Bring only ring-wise, well mannered dogs over one year of age.
- Dogs must be current on all vaccinations, and you must bring proof of rabies vaccine.
- Dogs will not be allowed in the seminar area unless working with the handler in the ring. Those dogs not being worked must be crated.
- Dogs that are disruptive will be removed from the building.
- Children who wish to participate must be over ten years of age.
- Any individual under eighteen years of age must have a parent or legal guardian sign the registration form prior to enrollment in the seminar.
- Only people registered for the seminar will be allowed in the building. No exceptions.
- No recording devices of any kind permitted inside the building (including all picture taking, video and voice recording devices).
- You must clean up after your dogs. Supplies will be provided.
- Anyone not adhering to the rules may be asked to leave immediately and will forfeit all monies paid.

GEORGE G. ALSTON

Mr. George Alston showed his first dog in 1947 and was originally licensed as an All-Breed Handler in 1961. During his show career, he won over 300 Best in Shows and over 1000 Group I's. Specials shown by him were consistently in the top rankings, which included Quaker Oats winners, Westminster Group winners, and multiple National Specialty winners. Now retired from handling, Mr. Alston teaches seminars where his students learn handling techniques, helpful insights, and "secret" tips. More than 150 of his students have gone on to win [owner handled] Specialty or All-Breed Best in Shows. Many of his students have gone on to become professional handlers including some who started his seminars when they were showing in junior showmanship. Mr. Alston is also the author of the best selling book, The Winning Edge: Show Ring Secrets.

For more information, please contact:

Johnette Dinello
705 Laughlin Street
Aliquippa, PA 15001
724-375-0837